“This year we are proud to announce an impressive list of college of club coaches to lead our teams,” commented Steve Bishop, Executive Director of the Florida Region of USA Volleyball. “Florida now has the longest running and most successful indoor all-star program in the US. We have a long tradition of excellence, which sets a high bar for our coaching staff each year. Supported by our hardworking region staff and our outstanding sponsors (ASICS & Baker’s Sports), I am sure that our Team Florida coaches will rise to the occasion once again. It is always special to host the USAV Indoor Championships and we get that opportunity once again in 2023. Ft. Lauderdale will be the host city and we look forward to welcoming all the regional, national, and international all-star teams to our great state. Go Team Florida!”
