WELCOME NOTE FROM COMMISSIONER

Welcome to the 2011 USA Volleyball season in the Florida Region. Our season has kicked off well and we have already had boy's volleyball tournaments. Our members are registering and attending tryouts and we are in full swing in the office. Please check the boxes carefully when you register to make sure that you affiliate yourself with the correct club. Once you choose a club, we usually do not allow changes, so maintain an UNDECIDED affiliation until you make a formal commitment. However, if you find you have a problem or issue, please contact the Region Office and they will be glad to assist you.

As the season kicks off, make sure that each member keeps a membership card on their person. That way, if any questions arise concerning your membership, you can present your current membership card. The card can be printed from your record; just log into your membership account and print your card. Here's to a great 2011 season and I wish each and every one of you Happy Holidays.

James Phillips, Commissioner
 Florida Region of USA Volleyball

LETTER FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The 2010 high school volleyball season has come to an end and the FHSAA State Volleyball champions have been crowned. ## CLUB HIGHLIGHT – VOLLEYBALL INSTITUTE OF PALM BEACH

Each month a member club is featured in Vol-eNews. This is a great way to get to know the Club Director(s) and learn more about the clubs throughout Florida. This month Shanon Lewis and Volleyball Institute of Palm Beach will be highlighted.

Q: What would you consider to be your biggest accomplishments with volleyball?

A: I used to think it was all the awards, the scholarship to Louisville, but that all changed this past year. We had a young lady on our 18 and under team, who had never played club volleyball before; she was far behind in the basic skills needed to perform at the next level. She did not have a supportive parental system, in regards to playing volleyball, but she wanted to play in college like no other player I had ever seen. She had gotten a job so she could pay her team fees herself and we worked with her on her skills and helped her with the recruiting process. She went to a tournament that had a showcase prior to the start of competition and a coach saw her athletic ability and inquired about her. This player ended up getting a full ride to a DII school. When she called to let me know that she had signed and to thank us for helping achieve her goal, it was the first time I felt like we (VIP) had really helped someone who loves the game of volleyball as much as I do.

Q: Tell us how you got started in volleyball?

A: 1984 was the summer between my 8th and freshman year in High School. It was also a summer Olympic year and the USA men's volleyball team won gold and our USA women's team took silver. I had been playing varsity volleyball already, but the Olympics put a whole new perspective and increased my passion for getting better and possibly playing in the Olympics one day. I was glued to TV and having to set my alarm and get up and watch at 3:00am. My life changed after the 1984 Olympics! I wanted to pass like Karch Kiraly and jump like Rita the Rocket – Crockett. I begged my parents to go to all the volleyball camps I could go to, IPFW and Arnie Balls camps, and Ball State camps. After my high school season was over my dad found an advertisement in the Fort Wayne paper and it was one line – Do you want to play volleyball in college? Call this number 219..... . We called and went to a meeting at IPFW and the rest is history. The club director Randy Litchfield had just graduated from Ball State where he was the setter for the men's team and had returned back to Fort Wayne to start a club. I remember him telling all of us that he had blown out his knee trying out for the 1984 Olympic team and I remember telling my dad that whatever it took to do what he did I wanted to do it too, just minus the busted knee.

Q: Tell us about your playing and coaching experiences in college?

A: I played at the University of Louisville in Kentucky and I was the assistant women's and head men's coach at Tri-State University in Indiana.

Q: What is one thing you took away from coaching at the collegiate level?

A: Contacts, lots and lots of contacts, and I learned a lot in regards to creating a team that works together towards a common goal. In club and high school, you really don't have the choices in regard to the team dynamic as you do when you coach and recruit for college. I also had the privilege to be at a university with both men's and women's volleyball programs, so the interaction between the two is also something that provides a completely different dynamic to the programs.

Q: What do you like to do when you are not coaching?

A: I like snorkeling, reading and traveling, although, since starting a beach program, snorkeling and traveling has kind of been put on the backburner.

Q: Tell us about your beach program.

A: Living on a farm in Indiana did not give me many opportunities to play beach volleyball while I was growing up. Although we had 101 lakes in our county, none of them had a sandy beach with a beach volleyball net. I grew up in a gym, playing volleyball with socks and shoes. I played in a couple tournaments in Mishawaka and up and down the Michigan side of Lake Michigan summers between college and afterwards, but I was not a big fan of the sand. Being of Irish decent, I get overheated and was unable to perform to my satisfaction. I got 2nd in a couple tournaments but I always felt like I was playing in mud. Give me a hard court and shoes!

Last year, when we were just talking about forming VIP, my partner, Dave Saenz, who is from California and grew up playing on the beach, brought up the beach opportunities in Florida. We discussed the pros and cons of starting a beach program and the pros outweighed the cons and we went for it and it was spectacular! Our first tournament saw one of our 16 and under teams in finals of the club division. Our boys and girls got better each week and continued to get medals and the season highlight was our 14 and under girls' team winning the National Championship.

Q: What is Sitting Volleyball?

A: Sitting volleyball is a Paralympics sport that provides a volleyball opportunity to disabled athletes, as well as, another training tool for able bodied athletes. VIP has been working with USA Paralympics Volleyball staff to start a men's and women's team in South Florida, in hopes that other clubs in the Florida Region will do so as well. We are working with the local VA and other organizations regarding getting the word out, as well as sponsoring our athletes to attend a couple of local tournaments. We hope that we can provide some kind of athletic outlet to our injured men and women who have come back from Iraq or Pakistan with injuries. If anyone is interested in starting a league, or knows of someone who is disabled and may want to play in their area, they can contact me at 954-304-6630.

Q: If you could brag about your club, what would you say?

A: I would brag about the staff, parents and players that have chosen to be a part of the VIP family. We really have a great bunch of people involved with our program.

Q: What future plans do you have for your club?

A: We have already expanded with our sister club, VIP 127, which is in Michigan. But really we just look to provide our customers with a quality product in the hopes that the players will continue to play and love volleyball throughout their lifetime and maybe even give back to the sport by becoming a coach or an official.

Q: What do you look forward to in the future for the Florida Region?

A: The continued growth of the sport. The more people we introduce to this wonderful game, the better!

Thanks Shanon for participating in the Club Highlight. The Florida Region wishes you and your club success in the 2011 season! Stay tuned for next month's Club Highlight to learn about Russel Williams and Longwood Volleyball Club.
