Additionally, this year's special guest at the awards ceremony will be Head Coach Amy Pauly of the Orlando Valkyries, a women's pro volleyball team operating in the Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF). Coach Pauly will be joined by several others from the Orlando Valkyries leadership team at the ceremony along with Dr. Cecile Reynaud from the PVF. On Saturday, April 20th, athletes and coaches from the Orlando Valkyries will attend a meet-and-greet at the ASICS Florida Volleyball Challenge during the midday. Event attendees will be able to meet the Valkyries and get an autograph or picture with their favorite pro athlete.

The Executive Director of the Florida Region, Steve Bishop, commented, "We'll gather once again in Orlando this April to celebrate another outstanding class of award winners that have made significant contributions to volleyball here in Florida. It will be a time of camaraderie, laughter, reflection, and excitement as we take a pause to tell their stories and recognize their many contributions. In addition, we'll present $131,000 in scholarships to high school seniors during the evening. It is safe to say that none of this would be possible without our amazing business and corporate partners. They will each get a moment in the spotlight during this magical night of recognition."
