VERBAL COMMITMENTS

The chart to the left shows the timing of when prospective athletes received their first verbal offer for an athletic scholarship.

CURRENTLY

Verbal offers may be made at any time.

- Verbal offers may be made over the phone. If the prospect is not yet a junior, she must imitate the call.
- Verbal offers may be made through the high school or club coach.

NCAA legislation is pending to prohibit verbal offers of aid until August 1st of the prospect's junior year. This vote will take place in April 2019.

Verbal offers of aid are not binding on the coach making the offer, the institution that the represent or the perspective athlete. However, in the volleyball community most people honor their verbal commitments.
