Orlando, Florida – The spirit of the Olympic Movement will roll into Orlando, as Central Florida Adaptive Sports & Conrad Education Foundation hosts a Community Paralympic Development Program in celebration of Olympic Day.

The Central Florida Adaptive Sports activity is one of more than 700+ events taking place nationwide between June 14 and 30. The events, designed to engage youth and promote the ideals of the Olympic movement, feature athlete appearances, family-friendly activities and interactive learning experiences.

Central Florida Adaptive Sports celebration will take place from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on June 27 at The Conrad Academy, 2008 N. Goldenrod Road, Orlando, Florida 32807. Paralympian Nicki Nieves and Bryan Tabler will kick off the event by sharing stories of their Paralympian Games' experience. A Sitting Volleyball exhibition game will take place following the presentation. Photo opportunities with Ms. Nieves and Mr. Tabler will be available prior to the game.

“We are excited to take part in Olympic Day and inspire kids in the Orlando community,” said Coach Jose Zabala. “Central Florida Adaptive Sports is proud to support the Olympic Movement and encourage children to lead healthy, active lives.”

Around the world, more than 160 countries take part in the annual celebration. Olympic Day, created in 1948 to commemorate the birth of the modern Olympic Games, focuses on the Olympic values and ideals such as fair play, perseverance, respect and sportsmanship. In the U.S., Olympic Day events range from small gatherings to large, city-wide events.
